My name is Zhovnir Snizhana.
I am a student of Bogdan Khmelnytsky
Melitopol State Pedagogical University.

I want to be a good teacher. I like to learn languages and work with children. I think school must be a friendly and safe place for everyone.

How I promote EU values through my teaching?

- ✓ I let students share their ideas freely.
 - ✓ I respect different opinions.
 - ✓ I ask students to listen to each other kindly.
 - ✓ I show that all students are equal in my classroom.
 - ✓ I support friendly behaviour and stop bullying.
- In this way, I promote freedom, respect, tolerance, and equality.

Freedom

I encourage students to speak openly and share their ideas without fear. We learn to listen to each other, respect different opinions, and express ourselves confidently during lessons.

Democracy

We discuss topics together, and every student can share their point of view.
I involve the class in simple group decisions to show how fairness and equal participation work in real life.

Human rights

I teach students that every person has rights and deserves fair treatment. We explore how language can promote respect, protect dignity, and help us stand up for others.

Tolerance

I create a warm and friendly classroom atmosphere where everyone feels safe. Students learn to understand differences, support each other, and show kindness in everyday interactions.
